

Questback Investor Relations policy - 2021

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL - DO NOT DISTRIBUTE

▶ Overall

The overall objective of Questback's investor relations policies is to provide all capital market stakeholders with a transparent, effective and efficient communication.

The investor relation function shall help to ensure that all communication is open, correct, complete and consistent to give investors and potential investors the best basis for valuation of the company.

Questback complies with the laws and regulations that applies for a company listed on Euronext Growth Oslo.

Regulatory

Questback shall at all times comply with applicable legislation and listing rules, including the Norwegian Securities Trading Act, the applicable accounting standards, the Public Limited Liability Companies Act and the listing rules of Euronext Growth Oslo.

The IR function shall ensure that all participants in the financial markets have timely and simultaneous access to accurate, clear, relevant and complete information from the company which may influence the value of the company's shares. All market participants shall be treated equally.

Communications with shareholders

Financial information and other regulatory news releases will be communicated through Oslo Børs' electronic distribution system Newsweb.no and on the company website.

Quarterly and annual financial reports will also be communicated in meetings with investors and analysts, but only after they have been made public to the market.

A financial calendar is available on the company's website

Questback does not comment on rumours.

Silent periods and Spokespersons

During the last three weeks prior to the publication of interim financial reports, the company's representatives will refrain from discussing the Company's performance and prospects with analysts, investors, media or others.

Spokespersons and primary contacts to the market are the CEO, CFO, COO, Chair of the Board or Investor Relations Officer. Other employees are instructed to refer to the above mentioned managers if approached by the media or other stakeholders.

English is the primary languages used for investor communication, but communications may also be made in Norwegian. Stock exchange notices and other formal communications will be published in English.